

Materials

- 5 jars of ink
- 5 pipettes
- 5 two-liter soda bottles without labels
- access to a computer with speakers
- aluminum foil and colored felt-marking pens
- annotated bibliography
- approx. 10 cups of water
- approx. 40 cups of flour
- approx. 5 quill pens
- approx. 5 tablespoons of salt
- artifacts at Washington's Headquarters (on trip)
- Battle of Saratoga handout
- black crayons
- bowls of sugar
- buckram
- buttons
- chart paper
- checklists for lessons 4,6, & 9
- children's reference books (library)
- computer reference materials
- compare/contrast handout (lesson 4)
- concept/content sheets
- corks
- crayons

- curricular integration map
- daily lesson plans (1-21)
- directions for mask
- example of a petition
- glass/plastic funnel
- goals sheet
- Harcourt Brace textbook
- K-W-L handout (lesson 2)
- labeled pins
- large glass container
- large poster board of battle grounds affiliated with the Victory of Yorktown
- library encyclopedias
- list of possible treaty topics (including time in front of the tv/computer, bedtime, room clean up, homework, playground rules, assigned seats, snacks, time on the phone, sharing, dress code)
- lyrics of American/British music
- map of Lexington and Concord (like the one on p.241)
- map of North America after the Treaty of Paris
- map of Saratoga
- map of Victory at Yorktown
- markers
- mask
- math handout (and corrected version)
- measuring cups
- miniature oven
- mixing pan

- modified submarine text
- music recordings
- note cards
- online access
- online videos
- paintbrushes
- paper
- paper cut-outs to represent those involved in the battles
- paper towels
- passages from The Winter of Red Snow
- pattern
- Paul Revere's Ride, by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow
- pencil
- pictures of the early Turtle
- plastic tubing
- poem ("Lady's Adieu to Her Tea-Table")
- photocopy (Lexington/Concord text)
- primary documents ("Anonymous Account of the Boston Massacre" and "Captain Thomas Preston's account of the Boston Massacre, 13 March 1770")
- props (boards for ship, tea "chests", "harbor water", etc.)
- Q.A.D.charts for lessons 3, 7, and 11
- rationale
- resources/supplemental material pages
- red, black, white, yellow, and blue tempera paints
- regular, lemon, and apple teas

-representative cut-outs of minutemen, British colonists, (Gov.) British General Thomas Gage, John Hancock, Samuel Adams, Paul Revere, and William Dawes.

-rubber bands and string

-rubrics for lessons 14 & 29

-scissors

-semantic maps

-sketches/stamps of Boston Tea Party

-skills sheet

-SpaRCs handout

-sponge

-spoons

-SQ3R worksheet

-students' masks

-tape

-tea cups

-tea kettle

-textbook

-tour around the Headquarters

-visuals of "taxable items" (documents, newspapers, letters, books, cards, sugar, tea)

-vocabulary sheet

-water

-writing paper and utensils